

*Bus Tours are welcome.
Call 410-604-2100*

KENT ISLAND

Sites open 12–4 p.m. First Saturday of the months May through November.

Historic Christ Church, 1880
Queen Anne style Church with unusual lancet-style chimney. 121 E. Main Street, Stevensville.

Broad Creek Cemetery, 1652
Site of one of the earliest centers of activity on the Island, now under-going archaeological investigation and restoration. Rt. 8, 370 Romancoke Road, Stevensville.

Cray House, c. 1809
Gambrel roofed tradesman's house, rare structural system. 109 Cockey Lane, Stevensville.

James E. Kirwan Museum, 1889
Country store and home of the former State Senator. 641 Dominion Road (Rt. 552), Chester.

Stevensville Train Depot, 1902
Station from western-most terminus of the old Queen Anne's Railroad Co. System. 0 Cockey Lane, Stevensville.

Old Stevensville Post Office, c. 1877
Tiny building that served as Stevensville's post office for the first half of the 20th century. 408 Love Point Road, Stevensville.

Stevensville Bank, 1903–1961
Financial center of Kent Island for fifty years. 409 Love Point Road.

Sponsored by

The Historic Sites Consortium of Queen Anne's County
P.O. Box 655
Centreville, MD 21617

For more information, special tours, or a Free Heritage Guide Map call 410-604-2100

historicqac.org

TOURING 2022

HISTORIC Queen Anne's County MARYLAND

Old Wye Mill

Come visit Queen Anne's County's historic train stations, colonial houses, an operating grist mill, a country store, and churches on six First Saturdays when the County's historic sites jointly open their doors to visitors.

Admission is free, but donations are accepted at all sites.

All sites open First Saturday
May–October
May 7, June 4, July 2, August 6
September 3, October 1

Refer to listed sites for other open days and hours.

Sites open May–October the first Saturday of the month.
Hours vary.

WYE MILLS

Old Wye Mill

Open Wed.–Sat. 10–3 p.m., Sun. 1–3 p.m.
1st and 3rd Saturdays: Grinding Days
An operating mill focusing on the period 1790–1830 when wheat brought prosperity to the Eastern Shore. Rt. 662, 900 Old Wye Mills Rd.
Donation $2.00

CHURCH HILL

St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 1728 (by appointment only)

Open 10–2 p.m. Built at a cost of 140,000 pounds of tobacco, one of the oldest intact brick churches in the state. 403 Main and Walnut Street

QUEENSTOWN

Queenstown Colonial Courthouse, c. 1709

Open 10–2 p.m. Once the county seat, this courthouse was the heart of colonial government in the county. It was restored in 1979. Corner of Del Rhodes Ave. & Rt. 18

CENTREVILLE

Kennard School

Open 10–2 p.m. Queen Anne's County's first and only African American secondary school, opened in 1936, closed in 1966, and was completely restored in 2016. 410 Little Kidwell Avenue

Museum of Eastern Shore Life

Open 1–4 p.m. Artifacts, household furnishings, farm equipment and a blacksmith's shop.
Rt. 18, 106 Dulin Clark Rd., at the 4-H Park.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church, c. 1692

Open 10–2 p.m. This church was built at its current location in 1834 and is known for its beautiful stained-glass windows. By 1909 it had been remodeled three times. 301 S. Liberty St.

Kennard School

James E. Kirwan Museum, 1889

Sudlersville Train Station, 1885

(Centreville continued)

Tucker House, c. 1792

Open 10–2 p.m. A two-room deep frame house built on the second lot sold in Centreville.
124 South Commerce Street

The Hope School

Open 11–1 p.m. One-room schoolhouse dating from 1892 that housed African American students grades one through seven. Route 304
125 Ruthsburg Road

Wright's Chance, c. 1744

Open 10–2 p.m. A gambrel-roofed plantation house with period furnishings moved to its current location in 1964. 119 South Commerce Street

SUDLERSVILLE

Dudley's Chapel, 1783 (Exterior Viewing Only)

Open 10–2 p.m. Fifth oldest Methodist Church in the United States, restored. 1100 Benton's Corner
Rd., 2 miles west of Sudlersville.

Sudlersville Memorial Library

Open 10–4 p.m. A majority of the Trustees of Dudley's Chapel established Wesley Chapel Methodist Episcopal Church on this site in 1868. After the Peninsula Conference closed all Methodist South churches in 1942, the town opened the building as a library in 1946. 105 W. Main Street.

St. Andrew's Chapel, 1880 (by appointment only)

Open 10–2 p.m. St. Andrew's Chapel is a charming wooden Gothic structure built on a design by Richard Upjohn, the nation's outstanding 19th century church architect. This style is sometimes referred to as carpenter gothic. 104 Maple Avenue.

Sudlersville Train Station, 1885

Open 10–2 p.m. May–October.
Only Queen Anne's County passenger station on its original site, restored and furnished with memorabilia commemorating Baseball Hall of Fame's Jimmie Foxx and exhibits on town history.
At the train tracks on 101 S. Linden Street.